Our community will learn with pleasure that Mr. K. C. Murray, editor of the Landmark, who was so seriously ill for weeks, has so far recovered as to be able to be out again. This will be pleas-ant news, not only to his friends in Norfolk, but throughout the State. The Yirginian expresses the wish that voices general scattment that he will soon be the to be at his post of duty again.

TO BEAPPORTION THE STATE.

The Philadelphia Ledger furnishes the information that the Republicans in Wisconsin are preparing to reappor nouncement does not occasion any surprise, yet it must be confessed that they have begun their work of gerrymandering somewhat early. The proposition will yield the Republicans twenty-two out of thirty-eight Sena-tors and fifty-five out of ninety-eight Assemblymen: The Democrats considthe matter as gerrymandering with vengeance, and Senator Vilas says vill be fought in the courts.

BUT WE DON'T WANT TO.

The London Graphic, discussing an article in the North American Review on the Monroe doctrine, says "If the cent for these Indo-Spanish republics which is doubtful, the course of the Gov ernment is clear. It must formally un-dertake the duties of a protective powr, or, better still; annex these terri tories altogether. England will have existing difficulties." The United States may care for the "Indo-Spanish" Republics, but it is pisin that we do not care to establish any protectorates nor are we hankering after territorial acquisitions.

It is questionable whe her cliner would e beneficial, while it is quite certain that they would bring embarrassmen

THIS MUST BE A JOKE.

The Washington Post having said that with Tom Reed in possession of the gavel, and a colored chaplain in charge of its spiritual welfare, the next House of Representatives would move smoothly, the Richmond Dispatch puts in the remainder, that—puts in the remainder, that—

"The elections are over, and the Republicans will have no use for the negro voters until the next campaign comes on. Negroes are what a distinguished man once described platforms to be, "Phings not to stand upon, but to get into office upon." The Post may rest assured that there will be no negro chaplain in the next House of Representatives."

Our Richmond contemporary is right.

Our Richmond contemporary is right The negro will have no show with the net House of Representatives in the way suggested by the Post, and that paper ought to know it. But after all may it not be that the Post is joking The thing upon its face is so ludicious

A CHANCE FOR OUR SHIPVARDS

The Baltimore American sees in the troubles between the British ship-builders and their employees a golder opportunity for American ship-build likely to break out in Turkey and in such an event there will be an imme-diate increase of all kinds of work embraced in ship building. It says:

A NEW DANGER FOR HAWAII.

According to recent advices from Hon olulu it appears that the Hawaiian Government has reason to believe that Ja nork last pan has a longing eye for the Hawaii tately to an Islands, and hence some uneasiness tic mis-is felt less an attempt may be made by calington the Japanese to invade that country The Japanese consul-general at Hono lulu has complained in the name of the Emperor, of the failure of the Hawaiian Government to comply with the terms of the immigration treaty, besides the Japanese on the Islands are showing a spirit of antagoism towards the authorities, and in this it is believed they are encouraged by their Government. the idea being to bring about a conflict which will give Japan a pretex for interference. It is estimated that there are 25,000 Japanese in Hawaii, which number is about two-thirds as large as einstantly arriving. These facts, along s in the general conduct of the Japae Government to be suspicious and some extent uneasy.

Threescore and Ten.

Who reach their three-score years and ten, As I have mine, without a sigh, Are either more or less than men— Not such am I.

I am not of them. Life to me Has been a strange, bewildered dream. Wherein I knew not things that be From things that seem.

I thought, I hoped, I knew one thing And had one gift, when I was youn The impulse and the power to sing, And so I sung.

To have a place in the high choir
Of poets and deserve the same—
What more could mortal man desiro
Than poet's fame?

I sought it long, but never found.
The choir so full was, and so strong
The jubilant voices there they drowned
My simple song. Men would not hear me then, and now

I care not, I accept my fate.
When white hairs thatch the furrowed brow,
Crowns come too late.

The lest of life went long ago
From me. It was not much at best,
Only the love that young hearts know,
The dear unrest.

Back on my past, through gathering tears, Once more I cast my cycs and see Bright shapes that in my better years Surrounded me.

They left me here, they left me there, Went down dark pathways, one by one— The wise, the great, the young, the fair— But I went on.

And I go on! And, bad or good,
The old allotted years of men
I have endured as best I could—
Threescore and ten!
